Native School Closes

The Native school closed last Friday, several visitors were present.

The enrollment for the year was 57. The average attendance for the year was 16.52.

The March average was lowered greatly by epidemic of influenza.

There has been a good interest manifested by the majority of the pupils throughout the year, and excellent advancement made by those who have been in school the greater part of the year.

The pupils not absent the last week were: Margaret Blake, Florence Blake, Helen Wells, Willie Wells and Annie Grant.

Annie Grant was absent but one day during the year and that for sickness.

Let every native exert himself and use all his power to promote the welfare of the school.

Salmon Prices Raising

The prices of canned salmon has already begun to raise, and brokers all over the coast are predicting an unprecedented price before the packing season closes.

The sharp advance in price is occasioned by the heavy foreign orders, many of the large buyers offering a bonus over the market prices to tie up the packs. — Juneau Dispatch.

Sidewalk Committee Extend Their Thanks

The Committee of Ways and Means on the sidewalk to the cemetery, wish to convey their thanks to Mrs. J. E. Worden for the successful musical entertainment given by herself and pupils free of charge on the sixth inst.

The cash results are very encouraging to the committee, who also wish to thank the townspeople for their liberal patronage.

New Depot Opens

Tacoma, May 1.—The new three quarter million dollar depot was opened for travel here this morning. The new depot is a magnificent structure, and has modern appointments for the accommodation of the traveling public.

Call on Dr. Mathis if your teeth need attention.

Obituary-Smith

Mrs. Lucy Smith, wife of Charles Smith, departed this life suddenly Monday night, May 1st about midnight, of heart failure.

She was a member of the Presbyterian Church at Wrangell, where they formerly lived. When her husband went to Woodsy for the Olympic Mining Company, Mrs. Smith and their little daughter Helen went with him. After some years there, they moved to Petersburg last summer, where Mr. Smith had built a beautiful home.

Mrs. Smith made many friends at Petersburg by her beautiful Christian character.

Funeral services were held in the home, at 3.30 o'clock on Thursday May 4th, by Rev. J. S. Clark of Wrangell. Music by Mrs. Brown, Mrs. Linscott, Mrs. Patton and Mrs. Duryea.

After the services the body was conveyed to the cemetery and laid away to await the summons of the King of Life.

Mr. Smith and Helen have the sympathy of many earnest friends in their bereavement.

Preparations for the funeral were made by Mrs. Mudge, who arranged everything beautifully and in order.

Wrangell To Have

A Laundry

It is reported that A. G. Fletcher has rented a building on Front St. and will install all necessary machinery for doing first-class laundry work.

The machinery has been ordered from Seattle and work will commence as soon as they arrive and are installed.

Mr. Fletcher has been connected with the laundry business in California and the addition of a plant in Wrangell will be greatly appreciated.

Ice Cream Parlor Opens

Mrs. Leonord opened her Ice Cream Parlor Sunday and is enjoying a good trade in spite of the cool weather.

Go For Bear

A party of hunters consisting of Messrs Moss, Collins Gibson, and Lombard, came up from Seattle on the Humboldt Sunday morning. They completed arrangements Sunday and Monday morning left for the Stikine to hunt bear for ten days or two weeks.

Musical Well Attended

The musical entertainment given by Mrs. J. E. Worden's class of 1911, at the Red Men's Hall, last Saturday evening was well attended. Fully two hundred people were present to enjoy the musical and literary selections given by the class.

All the numbers were very good and the two six hand numbers were exceptionally so, which goes to show that Wrangell has a good supply of musical talent and great things can be expected from them in the near future. Much credit is due Mrs. Worden for the excellent work in training these young people, and the people of Wrangell are united in wishing them future success.
